Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 03 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with a little brightness developing.

Today:
A cold start with some areas mist and fog around. These lifting and breaking to leave a dry day with some sunny intervals, though still rather cloudy. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
A few clear intervals giving a touch of frost in places. Otherwise, a mainly dry and cloudy night. Light northeasterly winds. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Thursday:
A mainly dry and cloudy day with bright intervals. A band of showers will spread southwards during late afternoon and evening. Light easterly winds. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Some frost at first then dry with sunny spells on Friday. Dry for most of Saturday but some rain later. Patchy rain on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.